HOUSE TROPHY—BENNETT HOUSE

HYMN

Great Lord of wisdom, life and light,
Before the hills were founded
Thy quickening breath dissolved the night
And stirred through deeps unsounded ;
Beneath Thy hand the formless earth
And ocean rolled asunder,
And in Thy likeness man had birth,
Thy crowning work and wonder.

Through that grey dawn Thou calledst him,
Untaught but not unheeding :
His feet were faint, his lamp was dim.
Yet faith discerned Thy leading.
Age after age and line on line
Thy book unfolded clearer,
Till like the flush of morn divine
Thy son proclaimed Thee nearer.

His word from East to slumbering West
Went out for all creation :
Our far-off islands woke and blest
Thy name with adoration.
We kneel where our forefathers knelt,
They trod these courts before us ;
Unseen, though near, our hearts have felt
Their blessings wafted o'er us.

We bless Thy name for one and all
Who founded for Thy glory
Each ancient school, each minster tall
To teach mankind Thy story :
May we, their sons, our lamp display
Of love and wisdom burning,
Till twilight melt in golden day
At our dear Lord's returning.

THE BAY OF BISCAY

Loud roar'd the dreadful thunder, the rain a deluge show'rs,
The clouds were rent asunder by lightning's vivid pow'rs,
The night was drear and dark, our poor devoted bark—
Till next day there she lay in the Bay of Biscay, O !

Now dashed upon the billow, her opening timbers creak,
Each fears a watery pillow, none stop the dreadful leak.
To cling to slippery shrouds each breathless seaman crowds,
As she lay till next day, in the Bay of Biscay, O !

At length the wished for morrow broke thro' the hazy sky,
Absorbed in silent sorrow, each heav'd a bitter sigh.
The dismal wreck to view, struck horror in the crew,
As she lay all that day in the Bay of Biscay, O !

Her yielding timbers sever, her pitchy seams are rent,
When Heav'n all bounteous ever, its boundless mercy sent.
A sail in sight appears, we hail her with three cheers,
Now we sail, with the gale, from the Bay of Biscay, O !

EARLY ONE MORNING

Early one morning, just as the sun was rising,
I heard a maid sing in the valley below :

Chorus : " O don't deceive me, O never leave me,
How could you use a poor maiden so ? "

Remember the vows that you made to your Mary,
Remember the bow'r where you vow'd to be true :

O gay is the garland, and fresh are the roses,
I've cull'd from the garden to bind on thy brow :

Thus sang the poor maiden, her sorrows bewailing,
Thus sang the poor maid in the valley below.

I VOW TO THEE MY COUNTRY

I vow to thee, my country, all earthly things above,
Entire and whole and perfect, the service of my love ;
The love that asks no question, the love that stands the test,
That lays upon the altar the dearest and the best ;
The love that never falters, the love that pays the price,
The love that makes undaunted the final sacrifice

And there's another country, I've heard of long ago.
Most dear to them that love her, most great to them that know ;
We may not count her armies, we may not see her King ;
Her fortress is a faithful heart, her pride is suffering ;
And soul by soul and silently her shining bounds increase,
And her ways are ways of gentleness and all her paths are peace.

SCHOOL SONG

Once more to part, our mother,
Thy sons around thee stand,
For thee with one another
Uniting heart and hand.
For thee we lift our voices,
For thee we shout our song,
For thee each tongue rejoices,
That swells our vocal throng.
Floruit, etc.

Nor let the thoughts of sadness
Within their bosoms swell,
Who 'mid these sounds of gladness
Bid boyhood's scenes farewell ;
Their past shall live for ever,
Their names for ever dear,
Nor life nor death can sever
God's ties of blessing here.
Floruit, etc.

So let our lives grown olden
With many a winter wan.
Be wreathed with memories golden
Of days for-ever gone ;
Of mind and arm excelling,
Of work with conquest crowned,
Of walls our triumphs telling,
And thy dear name renowned.
Floruit, etc.

Chorus : Floruit, Floret, Floreat,
Normanton's boys all cry,
Through good or ill,
God guard thee still,
Our boast through years gone by.
