CHAMPION HOUSE FROBISHER

OPENING HYMN

Great Lord of wisdom, life and light,
Before the hills were founded
Thy quickening breath dissolved the night
And stirred through deeps unsounded;
Beneath thy hand the formless earth
And ocean rolled asunder,
And in thy likeness man had birth,
Thy crowning work and wonder

Through that gray dawn thou calledst him,
Untaught but not unheeding:
His feet were faint, his lamp was dim,
Yet faith discerned thy leading.
Age after age and line on line
Thy book unfolded clearer,
Till like the flush of morn divine
Thy son proclaimed thee nearer.

His word from East to shembling West
Went out for all creation:
Our far-off islands woke and blest
Thy name with adoration.
We kneel where our forefathers knelt
They trod these courts before us;
Unseen, though near, our hearts have felt
Their blessings waited o'er us.

We bless thy name for one and all
Who founded for thy glory
Each ancient school, each minster tall
To teach mankind thy story:
May we, their sons, our lamp display
Of love and wisdom burning,
Till twilight melt in golden day
At our dear Lord's returning

THE SCHOOL SONG

Once more to part, our mother,
Thy sons around thee stand
For thee with one another
Uniting heart and hand.
For thee we lift our voices,
For thee we shout our song,
For thee each tongue rejoices,
That swells our vocal throng.
Flourish, etc.

Nor let the thoughts of sadness
Within their bosoms swell
Who 'mid these sounds of gladness
Bid boyhood's scenes farewell:
Their past shall live for ever,
Their names for ever dear,
Nor life nor death can sever
God's use of blessing here
Flourish, etc.

So let our lives grown older
With many a winter wan,
Be wreathed with memories golden
Of days forever gone:
Of mind and arm excelling,
Of work with conquest crowned,
Of walls our triumphs telling,
And thy dear name renowned.
Flourish, etc.

Chorus: Flourish, Flourish, Flourish,
Normanton's boys all cry,
Through good or ill,
God guard thee still,
Our boat through years gone:
